ORDER DISMISSING THE GUARDIAN
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA ONLY

The Guardian Life Insurance Company of America ("Guardian") having deposited the life insurance benefits in the amount of $12,500, plus any applicable interest and minus attorney fees in the amount of $1,000, into the Registry of the Court that were payable under the employee benefit plan sponsored by the Detroit Police Officers Association by reason of the death of the plan participant Louis Emanuel Taylor (the "Decedent") and the court being otherwise fully advised;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Guardian is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE from this action, without an award of costs or interest, but with attorney fees in the amount of $1,000 already approved and awarded.

It is so ordered.

Dated: September 28, 2012
